

Midbar Kodesh Temple Religious School

Parent Volunteer

Your Opportunity to Get Involved

Our Mission

To build a vibrant Parent Community for the MKT Religious School through creativity, initiative and participation and to provide an environment for families, students, and teachers that encourages and supports the idea of learning Judaism through doing.

Our Goals

- Organize and oversee a variety of Religious School community and other outside-the-classroom events
- Provide and encourage better two way communication between Religious School parents and the school
- Build bridges between Religious School families and the broader MKT community
- Provide support to the school administration in various areas, including curriculum, programs, and events, branding and fundraising

If you would like to become involved in the Religious School Parent Committee, contact, Marci Altman, director of religious school, maltman@midbarkodesh.org.
